TROLLEY CO. AND ALDERMEN MAKE, AN AGREEMENT.

Long Dispute, in Which Yonkers Suffered by the Enforcement of 15 Cent Fare -Agreement Runs Only Until Dec. 1.

YONKERS, May 13 .- A direct service to Van Cortlandt Park over the South Broadway line and the running of cars on the Elm and Walnut street lines were resumed in Yonkers this afternoon, following the effecting of a temporary arrangement last night between Leslie Sutherland, receiver of the Yonkers Railroad Company, and the Board of Aldermen. The arrangement is to continue in operation until December 1, 1909, and under it passengers will be conveyed to and from New York via the South Broadway trolley line and the subway for a fare of 10 cents instead of 15 cents as here-tofore.

No concessions were made by the receiver regarding fares on the Jerome and tried to get away. He carried the boy into Jones's drug store at the corner, he said, and the man there failed to find anything the matter with Heidenreich. So Hecker went away. No one asked him for his number, he said.

Dr. Rostenberg of 1872 Washington avenue, who was called in when the boy appeared to be in a critical condition on Wednesday evening, said last night that the would not die, although there were internal injuries besides a sprained ankle and bruises. The boy's father is Godfrey Heidenreich, a policeman attached to the Bronx Park station, where Hecker was locked up. resumed in Yonkers this afternoon, folceiver regarding fares on the Jerome and Webster avenue lines and three Democratic Aldermen-Frederick Stilwell, William Corbalis and Seymour Mooneyvoted against the temporary agreement on this account. This settlement brings to a close for some months at least a trolley situation which has caused hundreds of families to move out of Yonkers and brought building operations to a standstill, no one caring to invest money while there was a fifteen cent fare from New York.

In March, 1907, in the administration of Mayor Coyne, franchises over South Broadway and Elm and Walnut streets were granted to the Yonkers Railroad Company on condition that an eight cent the Battery by way of the trolley and sub-

After the lines were built the railroad refused to live up to its agreement, but when Mr. Sutherland was appointed receiver of the road in January, 1908, he opened the South Broadway line and for some months carried passengers at an eight cent fare. Receiver Whitridge of the Union Railroad opposed this policy and the fare was finally jumped to 10 cents and then under a decision of United States Circuit Court Judge Lacombe transfers between the Union and Yonkers roads were discontinued. After months of conferences and proposed compromises roads were discontinued. After months of conferences and proposed compromises between the railroad and city officials a fifteen cent fare was put into effect between New York and Yonkers in October. Since then several compromises were proposed, but the Democratic Aldermen fought for the enforcement of the franchise obligation of an eight cent fare on South Broadway the resumption of transfer privileges, and eight cent fare to New York by way of the Bedford Park trolley and the elevated and a five cent fare from Sherwood Park to 129th street, the company refusing to yoeld.

Bison, as beneficiaries under the time of the premises at 16 Water street, standing in the name of John B. Miller, in which the Gould estate had an interest. The property was sold for $30,000 and one-thirtieth each of the net proceeds was awarded to beneficiaries under Jay Gould's will.

RAN AWAY TO NEW YORK.

Ralph Gerbrown, Jr., Sir, and He'd Sleep in a Vacant Lot.

A small boy with a big suitcase in each hand turned into a vacant lot at Broadway and 148th street at 10:30 o'clock last night.

refusing to yoeld.

The South Broadway and Eim street franchises were revised by the Aldermen, the Democrats contending that Receiver Sutherland, who is the Republican leader in Yonkers, was playing into the hands of the traction interest and foisting high fares on the city of which he was fermerly Mayor.

Mayor.
Under the settlement the peculiar cituation exists of a company operating cars by a license over lines for which it holds no franchise. While the South Broadway line was discontinued the company operated cars over New Main street, which has but a single track, and the service was slow and inadequate.

ADMIRAL BARTON'S REMOVAL.

Attorney-General Says Capps's Assignment in His Place Was Wrongfully Made. WASHINGTON, May 13 .- The Attorney-General has upheld Truman H. Newberry, the former Secretary of the Navy, in displacing Rear Admiral Barton as chief of the bureau of steam engineering on account of physical disqualification, but has rendered an opinion also that Chief Constructor Capps was wrongfully made acting head of the bureau. Admiral Barton was in ill health and when former Secretary Newberry put through his naval reorganization scheme he was naval reorganization to the day before he ran away he had had sold a lot of things which no boy with any spirit could stand. That night he had gone had not he was and how he came to be there.

He said he was Ralph Gerbrown, Jr., is did fifty years ago.

"But." said he, "other things have did fifty years ago.

"But." said he, "other things have did fifty years old. The old stage coach is gone, but there is still a place for the horse. The old ministers of fifty years ago used to have to preach three sere the horse. The old ministers of fifty years ago used to have to preach three sere the country of the leading business and the was named.

Secretary Newberry put through his naval reorganization scheme he was naval reorganization scheme he was naval reorganization to do had run away from his drugs don't occupy the high place they did fifty years ago.

"But." said he, "other things have did fifty years ago.

"But." said he, "other things have did fifty years ago.

"But." said he, "other things have did fifty years ago.

"But." said he, "other things have don't occupy the high place they did fifty years ago.

"But." said he, "other things have don't occupy the high place they did fifty years ago.

"But." said he, "other things have don't occupy the high place they did fifty years ago.

"But." said he, "other things have don't occupy the former Secretary of the Navy, in disnever been an official explanation of why the place was not given to Lieutenant-Commander Cone. It is supposed that his appointment will now be made, as there appears to be no legal head of the bureau of steam engineering. The difficulty concerning the bureau has caused a lot of interest and discussion throughout the navy The announcement to-day follows:

George V. L. Meyer, Secretary of the Navy, to-day gave out the opinion of the Attorney-General on the status of the head of the bureau of steam engineering, which has been filled by the temporary appointment of Chief Constructor Capps, following the retirement of Rear Admiral Barton for physical disability on December 22, 1908. The Attorney-General holds that the post of chief of the bureau of steam engineer-ing is vacant; that Rear Admiral Barton ing retired by a board of medical survey of the navy, thereby vacated the office of engineer in chief, according to section 1462 of the revised statutes.

That Chief Constructor Capps's appointment on December 30, 1908, to act as head of the bureau of steam engineering did not fall within the provisions of section 179 of the revised statutes, since the vacancy was caused not by death, resignation absence or sickness, but by the compulsory retirement of Admiral Barton, and that the vacancy thus created can be filled only by the President, by and with the consent of the Senate, pursuant to the provisions of sections 421 and 422 of the revised statutes.

MRS. JANE GERMON ILL.

The Aged Comedienne Has Heart Disease and Is Not Expected to Survive.

BALTIMORE, May 13 .- Mrs. Jane Germon. the aged comedienne, is seriously ill at the home of her son, Dr. Frank W. Germon in this city. Owing to her advanced years it is feared that her sickness will prove fatal. Mrs. Germon is 87 years old and is suffering with heart disease. She has been sick for the last month, but it was not thought that her condition was serious late, when all retired. the aged comedienne, is seriously ill at the thought that her condition was serious until Sunday night. The muscles of her throat being paralyzed, she is able to take but little nourishment and is conscious only at intervals. Mrs. Germon has a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Saunders of San Francisco, who is still older than herself, having passed in 1822. Her father, William Anderson, was a manager, and her mother was Euphemia Jefferson of the famous theatrical family of that name, and in this way Mrs. Germon was related to Joseph Jefferson, the celebrated actor. Her husband was G. C. Germon, a comedian, who died while she was quite a young woman. She has acted with all the great term and her first appearance was with woman. She has acted with all the great stars, and her first appearance was with Edwin Forrest in "William Tell," when she was only 7 years old. She was a member of the old Ford Stock Company and a very popular actress.

The law requires that Stevens shall be a resident of Tahtti for six months before ne can marry there, so he will stay until September, when he will marry Miss Drollett.

TEN CENT FARE TO YONKERS TRACED BY HIS AUTO NUMBER. Man Whose Car Hit Policeman's Son

John M. Hecker-Arrested. The New Jersey number which several persons saw on the automobile that ran down Harry Heidenreich of 2372 Webster avenue on Wednesday afternoon at Fordham road and Webster avenue enabled to New York, Temporarily Ended the police to trace the driver of the car. Last night John M. Hecker, who said he was a clerk, was arrested at his home, 140 West Sixty-ninth street, by Patrolman

Hecker admitted that he had knocked the boy down, but he deried that he had tried to get away. He carried the boy

Tied Up by Various Accidents So That

Only Two Goulds Get the Cash. Supreme Court Justice Gerard signed the Countess de Sagan would have been in every corner, but found no girl nor entitled is applied on a judgment for fraction thereof. Returning to Pell street $10,296 obtained against her as Mme. they joined the Chinese, who evidently Gould by Eugene Fischoff, an art dealer, were amazed to see the men reappear in 1901. Two other members of the Gould alive. family who are deprived of that amount are Howard and Frank, who are both involved in divorce proceedings, and accordingly could not get the consent of their wives that their husbands receive their share.

the performance walked on after venting grunts of astonishment, but Policeman Ahrens, who thought that it was within his duty to see that boys didn't sleep in vacant lots went over to the place where the little chap was stretched out and asked why he didn't go home.

"It's too far to go to-night," the boy answered.

"If you will go away I'll be all right."

all right."

But the policeman marched the stranger off to the West 152d street station, carrying the suitcases and keeping an eye cocked to see that the boy didn't give him the slip. On the way the young man explained who he was and how he came to be there.

naval reorganization scheme he was displaced and Chief Constructor Capps was made acting head of the bureau, some of the duties of which were transferred at the time to the bureau of constructor Capps is the head.

Later Lieutenant-Commander Hutch I. Cone was selected for appointment as made during the Roosevelt Administration but not formally announced until Mr. Taft became President. There has never been an official explanation of why the place was not given to Lieutenant-Commander Commander Cone. It is supposed that it is a selected for appointment as never been an official explanation of why the place was not given to Lieutenant-Commander Cone. It is supposed that it is not things which no boy with any spirit could stand. That night he had gone home, packed in the two suitoases all there dould stand. That night he had gone home, packed in the two suitoases all there dould stand. That night he had gone home, packed in the two suitoases all there had pone to clothes he could find and scraped together a few dollars.

Early the next morning he had struck out the shedding of blood there was no testing along all right, except that his money was all gone. Capt. Kreuscher liked the boy's looks and he seemed to be telling the truth. The father in Chelthenham was telegrated to preach one. Is there are two suitoases all there he could find and scraped together a few dollars.

Early the next morning he had struck out the shedding of blood there was no remission of sins in religion or medicine once, and George Washington suffered martyrdom in the hands of his physicians. But drugs are still taken and patients are still left."

There was still need for the heme he had sure was made on freight trains. That was all there we still four the shedding of blood there was no remission of sins in religion or medicine once, and George Washington suffered to the time he had sure was made on freight trains. That was all there was to it. He was getting along all right, except that his money was all gone. Capt. Kreuscher liked the boy

Father's Head Crushed in House With Wife and Five Daughters.

St. PAUL, May 13.-Louis Arbogast, a butcher, was murdered at 4:25 o'clock this morning at his home, 286 West Seventh

The weapon used was a four pound axe which was found in the cellar. Arbogast's head was mashed as he lay in bed. Kerosene was poured on the bedding and a fire started. Screams from the house brought firemen, who extinguished the fire before it had spread beyond the bed. The crime is a mystery both as to motive and murderer. The axe was in the cellar last night. It was taken upstairs and after the bed had been fired it was returned to its place in the basement and some old clothes were thrown on it to hide it. When found by detectives it was covered with blood.

EXILED TO WIN A BRIDE. Rich Man Will Stay in Tahiti Six Months So He Can Marry Native Girl.

late, when all retired.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18 .- A. J. Stevens, wealthy land owner of San Diego, on the stage, although Mrs. Germon is chiefly known in the East.

Mrs. Germon was born in New Orleans in 1822. Her father, William Anderson, was a manager, and her mother was born in New Orleans in 1822. Her father, William Anderson, was a manager, and her mother was believed the father of the father was a manager, and her mother was a manager. and fell in love with her.

She consented to become his wife and on May 5 they asked Capt. Haywards of the Mariposa to marry them, but he refused because they did not have proper apparation in a Pell Street Window Received by Prostrate Chinese as a Sure Portent of Sumpee Do Polly Klick in the Tong Fighting Line.

CHINATOWN HAS A SPOOK

HALF A LADY CELEBRATES MOCK DUCK'S RETURN.

A party of Chinese shuffling through street at 8 o'clock last night suddenly stopped short to gaze up at a window of the rooms occupied by a girl known to Chinatown as just The Blonde. Other Chinese and lobbygows stopped. Presently Pell street was blocked with a wondering, chattering, frightened crowd. Up in the window, swaying weirdly from ide to side and casting a phosphorescent light into the dark depths of the chamber behind-so they say-were the head and bust of a white girl. Only the head and bust and arms, mind you. Her garments were white. In her left hand burned and burned a steady yellow flame

Otto Harris, a Chinatown guide, beholding the Chinese prostrating themselves the presence of something invisible A LITTLE GOULD DIVIDEND to him, scurried to Enright, detective of police, and told him about it. Then guide and detective trained their own eyes on the window and saw what they saw, which was nothing. They tore up the resterday a referee's report in a parti- stairs and to the room of the Blonde. ion suit by which about $1,000 to which Empty. They lighted the gas and searched

Enright searched the crowd for a Chinese who could speak English. Finding one, he demanded an explanation of the kowtowing. Lee Teng, a merchant, begged the detective to desist from such a ques tion and said further, "You no see? You

No, the detective didn't see. He wanted

GLAD THEY'RE HOM COPATHS. Alumni of New York College Hold That the Torch Is With Them.

The New York Homosopathic Medical College is to celebrate its half century next year, and all the graduates who dined at the Waldorf last night were very dined at the Waldorf last night were very one whom the girl knew and who for the proud of this fact. There were over three purpose of misleading pursuit took the hundred of them, many of them coming here from other cities.

Dr. John Prentiss Rand of Worcester, Mass., the retiring head of the alumni association, told his fellow doctors that ago used to have to preach three sermons a week, whereas now a minister is hardly required to preach one. Is there no call for the clergyman? Without the shedding of blood there was no remission of sins in religion or medicine once, and George Washington suffered martyrdom in the hands of his physimals.

century. Ours should be retained, not country. for the good accomplished, but because for the good accomplished, but because we still represent and teach all that is best in the science of medicine."

Dr. Rand said that he was in favor of adding to the college chairs of osteopathy and physical therapeutics. "So that our students," he explained, "may be able to teach or refute these rapidly growing forms of treatment."

In order to help the homeopathic colleges Dr. Rand suggested that the graduates try to interest their rich patients and get them to contribute.

Dr. Walter Sands Mills of the class of so spoke of the work done at Flower Hospital and said that a movement was under way to get the Flower Hospital ambulances to bear the word 'homeopathic."

Other speakers were Dr. Clarence C.

was covered with blood.

Arbogast's failure to appear at his store this morning puzzled Charles Klabunde, his manager, who went to the house to investigate. Louise Arbogast, the eldest of six daughters, answered his call. Klabunde says she was hysterical and cried "Papa is dead and there is something wrong with the gas."

Klabunde said that he supposed it was a case of suicide by gas. When he learned the truth he was surprised that Louise had said nothing about violence. In the house when the murder was committed were the victim, his wife and daughters Louise, Emma, Ida, Minnie and Babe.

Last night when Arbogast returned from his store he told members of the family that he had decided to take a trip to the Klondike with William Manteuffel, a manufacturer. He had planned the trief for some time and there had belanned to the form the manufacturer. He had planned the trief for some time and there had belanned to the trief for some time and there had belanned to the trief for some time and there had belanned to the form the f

SAID TO BE AGERMAN BARONESS Lost by Her Parents in This City-Found

Working in a St. Paul Restaurant. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 13.-After a waitress, Miss Theresa Pry, said to be German Baroness, is on her way to Germany, where anxious parents and a fortune are awaiting her. Miss Pry was discovered in an obscure restaurant in St. Paul through the efforts of the German

VOGEL BROTHERS, 42d St. at 8th Ave. Men's Suits,

Unequalled at the Special Price-$16.50

'Tis a difficult matter, indeed, to do justice to these suits in cold type-words are hard to find to express their rare beauty.

Above all, they are distinctive-cut on graceful lines that tend to make the wearer appear tall and slim-shoulders of just the proper breadth, narrow sleeves, deep roll lapel, broad chested, slim-waisted, and the new semi-peg trousers cuffed at the bottom. In every phase they accord with the exact views of the most critical man. Fabrics? The richest tones of tan, olive, brown and gray-and the finest of blue serges.

Vogel Brothers

NO TRACE OF MURDERER.

All Clues in Case of Laura Regester Lead to Nothing.

PROVIDENCE, May 13 .- With the divorced husband eliminated as a possibility and various other clues run to earth, the police are to-night as much in the air as ever over the mysterious murder of Laura Regester.

The young woman was found strangled to death in a lot off Reservoir avenue on Tuesday morning. Besides the injury

Apparently no one was seen near the place where the girl was murdered, either at the time when she got off the car at 19:41 on Monday night or later.

The fact that her pocketbook, which contained only a small sum; her ring and bracelet are gone seem to indicate that some wandering yegg may be responsible for the crime, while on the other hand there is a theory that the assailant is some one whom the girl knew and who for the cians. But drugs are still taken and patients are still left."

JUDGE'GARY GREETED AT GARY. Prospects Are Growing Brighter

There was still need for the perpetuation of the homosopathic method of treatment, Dr. Rand said, and the homosopathic bospitals were still curing almost two patients to one cured by these of the older school.

"Are we ready to give up our distinctive name?" he asked. "Yes, when something better has taken its place. While our death rate is less than that of the dominant school, we have still a mission. If any school is to go out of existence let it be those who failed to grasp the great therapeutic truths of the mineteenth century. Ours should be retained, not the club he was repeatedly and enthusiastically cheered. In his speech Judge Gary referred to the disposition of legislators to vote the disposition of legislators to vote against the interests of a community and the tree that the prejudice of the great financial interest that may be attempting to develop a locality, with the inevitable result that the large corporation or large peculiary interest gradually and slowly drifts away from such a State or people and comes to such a place as Gary, where the people work for the best interests of a community and the cost would have to be borne by the city authorities, although the cost would have to be borne by the city authorities, although the cost would have to be borne by the city authorities, although the cost would have to be borne by the city authorities, although the cost would have to be borne by the city authorities, although the cost would have to be borne by the city authorities, although the cost would have to be borne by the city authorities, although the cost would have to be borne by the city authorities, although the cost would have to be borne by the city authorities, although the cost would have to be borne by the city authorities, although the cost would have to be borne by the city authorities, although the cost would have to be been city authorities. In his property without the cousent of the city authorities. In his property wi

FAT MAN BLOCKED FIRE EXIT. With Him Disloged Seven Firemen Were Knocked Out by Gas.

A little fire made a lot of smoke last night in the six story tenement at 41 Car-nine street, which houses twenty-five amilies of Italians. Patrolman Kane families roused John Di Palma, who lives on the first floor. Then he ran to a lire alarm box.

When he came back the smoke was a good deal thicker, but nobody was coming out of the door. Kane went inside and found at the top of the first flight of stairs a very fat Italian wedged in between a huge trunk and the wall. The man couldn't move one way or the other and the hundred or so persons behind him couldn't get over the barrier. They were on the verge of a fine panic.

Kane reached for the fat man, yanked him free and sent the trunk bumping him free and sent the trunk bumping down the stairs. The Italians tumbled after it into the open air.

Kane went on through the building and found a woman standing at the door and found a woman standing at the door of a room on the second floor making gestures from which Kane gathered that there was something to do inside.

He found a paralytic unconscious from fright and smoke lying on a bed. The policeman slung him over his shoulder and ferried him to the sidewalk. The man was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital. Seven firemen had some trouble with escaping gas and had to be carried out. Dr. Walsh of St. Vincent's set them right. The fire did little damage.

working in Minneapolis and St. Paul as TO BEAT INTERSTATE LAW. Standard Plans Pipe Line for Its Own Oil Only.

NEW ORLEANS, May 13 .- "The Standard NEW ORLEANS, EMAYELS.—The Standard Oil Company will build a pipe line from Tulsa. I. T., to New Orleans, in which oil will be pumped here to be refined in a refinery to be built in New Orleans, said Hunter C. Leake, legal representative of the Standard Oil Company of Louisians, a concern recently chartered with a capitalization of $5,000,000. The Louisiana company is a subsidiary of the New Jersey.

Consul.

Miss Pry, who is 2b years of age, was lost from her parents in New York city five years ago after the three had stepped from an Atlantic liner. The mother and father spent months and hundreds of dollars in the search, finally abandoning hope and returning to Germany. A few days ago Miss Pry was found in St. Paul at 361 Franklin avenue. For some time she was employed as a servant zirl at the home of Chief of Police J. J. O'Connor.

Convict on Trial for Assaulting Keepers.

White Plains, May 18—Frank Sapiro, a Cuban who is now serving a long term in Sing Sing prison, was put on trial in the Westchester county court to-day on the charge of having assaulted and stabbed two of the keepers in the prison.

METZ FINDS A NEW FLAW

BLOCK BROOKLYN SUBWAY.

The Comptroller Points Out That the Fee in Brooklyn Streets Belongs to the Adjoining Property Holder—May Cost the City $20,000,000 More.

that the amount to which Howard and Frank would be entitled be deposited with the City Chamberlan to be invested, and the income only paid to the two brothers during the lifetime of their wives. Edith Kingdon Gould, wife of George, and Sarah, wife of Edwin, signed consents for their husbands.

The suit was brought by Daniel S. Miller, Emily Noyes and Harriet A. Dickinson, as beneficiaries under the will of Daniel S. Miller, for the sale of the premises at 16 Water street, standing in the name of John B. Miller, in which the openity was sold for $30,000 and one-thirden the footile estate had an interest. The property was sold for $30,000 and one-thirden the Steep in a Vacant Lot.

RAN AWAY TO NEW YORK.

Ralph Gerbrown. Jr., Sir, and Herd Steep in a Vacant Lot.

A small boy with a big suitcase in each and deposited his grips on the ground. The her of the best was provided the seed of the bags and lay down with the esteret, sand farmed and deposited his grips on the ground. The her of the best was the tree station, and reported all hed seed and heard. The properity was sold for $30,000 colock last night and deposited his grips on the ground. The her of the brown had deed a month the evident intention of going to sleep.

Passersby who had stopped to watch the performance walked on after venting grunts of astonishment, but Policeman and the performance walked on after venting grunts of astonishment, but Policeman and the performance walked on after venting grunts of astonishment, but Policeman and the performance walked on after venting grunts of astonishment, but Policeman and the performance walked on after venting grunts of astonishment, but Policeman and the performance walked on after venting grunts of astonishment, but Policeman and the performance walked on after venting grunts of astonishment, but Policeman and the performance walked on after venting grunts of astonishment, but Policeman and the performance walked on after venting grunts of astonishment, but Policeman and the performance walked on after vent

COURT HOUSE BILL VETOED. Mayor Approves at the Same Time Kings County Court House Bill.

The Mayor vetoed yesterday the bill authorizing the commission appointed to select a site for a new county court house to acquire the property on the north side of Chambers street between the Hall of Records and Broadway. Mr. McClellan objected not only to the manmost cordial, and during his speech to datory feature of the bill which emthe club he was repeatedly and enthu-

MAGISTRATE HERBERT. Member of Judge Walsh's Organization

iam street, was appointed a Magistrate by Mayor McClellan yesterday to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Magistrate Walsh. Mr. Herbert, who has been waish. Mr. Herbert, who has been practising law in this city for about ten years, was an active worker for Mr. McClellan in the last Mayoralty campaign and had among his indorsers Archbishop Farley and more than thirty Catholic clergymen of the city. He belongs to the Tammany organization of the Twenty-first district, of which Judge Walsh was the leader. He is about 30 years old and lives at 30 West 128th street.

FEARS THAT DAMAGE SUITS MAY

BOSTON, May 13.-According to the be-than 40 per cent. would agree to waive their claims for damages. It is contended that claims for such damages would amount anywhere from ten to twenty millions of dollars. At to-day's meeting of the Board of Estimate he will introduce a resolution to the effect that the city should not undertake the construction of the route until the property owners release the city from damages.

Chairman Willcox of the Public Service Commission said yesterday that the contention raised by Mr. Metz was serious one, and that if it should be upheld it would mean that Brooklyn would get no more subways for many years to come. "Either property owners in Brooklyn will have to waive claims for damages because of their legal rights to the streets or they will get no subways, at least not for several years." Mr. Willcox said.

Takes Dead Leader's Place.

Henry W. Herbert, a lawyer of 27 Will-Best & Co.

Special Sale of Hosiery Friday and Saturday

Infants' and Chillren's Socks plain colors, fancy stripes and plaid tops; new designs; sizes 5 to 9 6 pairs in box-$1.10 box

English White Lisle Thread Openwork Socks sizes 4 to 81/2 6 pairs in bex-$1.10 box

Infants' and Children's Silk Socks Tans, White, Sky Blue and Pink; sizes 41/2 to 71/2 special falue, 35c. pair

Misses' and Children's Plain Lisle Thread Hose ingrain; Black only; value 55 cts., 39c. pair

> Fine Ribbed Gotton Hose ingrain; Black only; special value, 3 pairs for $1.00

> Boys' Ribbed Cotton Hose Black only; sizes 7 to 10 19c. pair; 6 pairs in box-$1.10 box

Largest range of prices and greatest assortment of Knit Underwear to be found anywhere.

60-62 West 23d Street

Against War.

further increase in armaments. The annual report of Secretary True- of the late Gen. Myers, U. S. A.

blood said that the society expresses its satisfaction in surveying the signal ad-worth $175. The Whiting company says vance of the cause of international justice that it does not know whether Myers

PEACE MEN ARE HOPEFUL. SILVER SALESMAN A THIEF. Signs That the World Is Turning Henry Myers Rebbed the Whiting Company—Caught by Marked Bills. Henry Myers, a salesman for the lief of the American Peace Society ex- Whiting Manufacturing Company, silpressed at its eighty-first annual meeting versmiths at Broadway and Nineteenth to-day there is a steadily growing op- street, was looked up last night charged position among the American people to with having stolen money and silverware from the store. He said that he is a son satisfaction in surveying the signal advance of the cause of international justice and organization during the decade.

The advance has been far greater and more rapid than the most daring and prophetic minds could have ventured to predict.

"The most commanding duty of the hour," he says, "is the limitation and gradual reduction of the monstrous and menacing armaments of the nations. Concerted action to this end is the clear obligation of all governments party to the Hague conventions."

It was reported that the school superintendents in fifteen States have declared in favor of making May 18 a national peace day and announcement was made that the eighteenth International Peace Congress would be held at Stockkolm from August 31 to September 5. The membership of the society was placed at nearly 3,000, having nearly deubled during the last year.

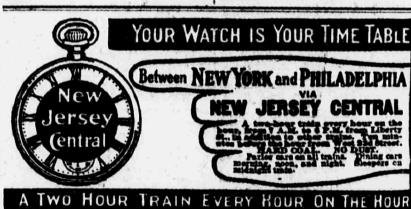

These officers were elected: President, Robert Treat Paine, Boston; seriesary, Benjamin E. Trueblood, Boston; sudicitudes.

The annual banquet of the society was the police of the firm, kept watch, a woman purchased silver from Myers and paid for it with marked bills.

A few minutes before closing time Myers was called aside He had the marked $1 bills and some silver valued at 131. Lindemann took Myers to the marked $1 bills and some silver valued at 131. Lindemann took Myers to the marked $1 bills and some silver valued at 131. Lindemann took Myers to the marked $1 bills and some silver valued at 131. Lindemann took Myers to the marked $1 bills and some silver valued at 131. Lindemann took Myers to the marked $1 bills and some silver valued at 131. Lindemann took Myers to the marked $1 bills and some silver valued at 131. Lindemann took Myers to the marked $1 bills and some silver closing time marked $1 bills and some silver valued at 131. Lindemann took Myers to the marked $1 bills and some s

Brown, national commissioner of education, was added to the list of vice-presidents.

The annual banquet of the society was held this evening. The Rev. Charles E. Beals of Boston, Bishop Hamilton of Boston, Hans von Kaltenbom of Cambridge and Edwin D. Mead of Boston were the speakers.

WALTHAM WATCHES

Before you say flour say GOLD MEDAL-Always. lts your say Now. WASHBURN-CROSBY'S. GOLDMEDALFLOUR